BAYEUX CITY

A Small dynamic town in Normandy

Capital of Bessin, sub-prefecture of Calvados, the city of Bayeux is located in Normandy, a few kilometers from the landing beaches. It is a very touristic city that lives all year round.

12 043 inhabitants

800 000 visitors
per year

350 businesses

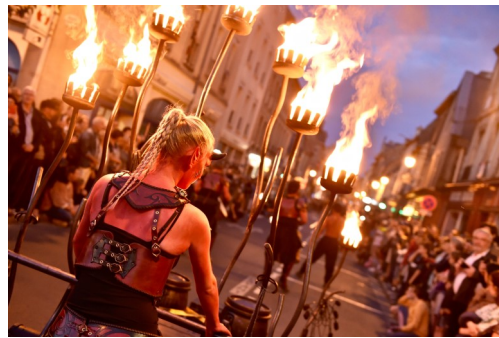

1 river in the heart of the town: the Aure
1 public garden protected as a historical monument
Ville Fleurie (3 flowers)
2 weekly markets: Wednesday morning and
Saturday morning

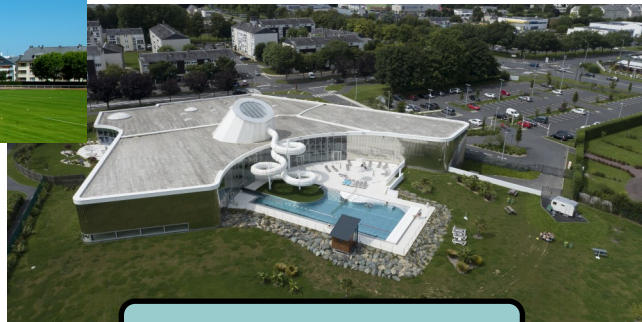

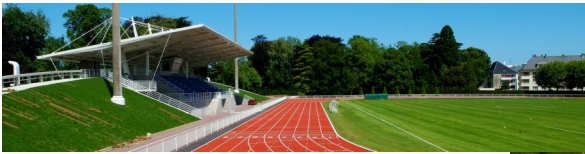

Cultural and sports facilities

Our Tapestry is a world-famous treasure (UNESCO). There are many cultural events of international dimensions: the Bayeux Prize for war correspondents, the international circus festival, the medieval festival...

Also, for three months in 1944, Bayeux was the capital of liberated France.

Several of the town's cultural and sports facilities are brand new and of excellent quality : the Halle ô grains theatre, the media-library 'les 7 lieux', the Aureo swimming pool, the Eindhoven sports hall, tennis courts ...

Discover Normandie

Normandy has several places and traditions listed as UNESCO World Heritage sites, as well as villages listed among the "Most Beautiful Villages of France" and spas. In addition to these remarkable sites, and many beautiful detours, each town and village in Normandy is worth discovering!

From Mont-Saint-Michel to Tréport, from Cherbourg to Alençon, Normandy offers a fantastic mosaic of landscapes.

THE LANDING AND THE BATTLE OF NORMANDY

In 1944, on the 6th of June and during the long summer that followed, men from all over the world came to fight in Normandy to bring down Nazism and restore Freedom.

22 KM

ARROMANCHES

10 KM

In the heart of the D-Day beaches of June 1944, Arromanches owes its fame to the remains of the artificial port. The astonishing images of this unique place are as beautiful as they are disturbing.

CAEN, HEIR TO WILLIAM THE CONQUERER

- Botanical Gardens: 2,000 rare plant species
- Meadow and racecourse: 90 hectares of greenery with an aviary
- Jardins des Simples: aromatic and medicinal plants and a vegetable garden in the medieval castle
- Banks of the Orne: 5 km of footpaths for walking
- Parc de la Colline aux oiseaux: 17 hectares of landscaped gardens (labyrinth, fountains, animal park, play areas and a rose garden with 570 varieties)
- Michel d'Ornano Park, French garden of the Abbaye aux Dames
- Mémorial Museum ...

33 KM

ETRETAT AND ITS MAJESTIC CLIFFS

Étretat, a romantic setting overlooking the English Channel, has inspired the most illustrious artists. A few moments on the spot are enough to understand why... The singular shape of its cliffs, be it the Manneporte, the Cour-tine or the Aiguille, invites the imagination.

148 KM

LE MONT-SAINT-MICHEL AND ITS BAY

Mont-Saint-Michel has the unique feature of being built on a rocky islet, surrounded by a magnificent bay, the location of the highest tides in continental Europe. The Mont and its bay are classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is one of the most visited monuments in France

118 KM

GRANVILLE AND CHAUSEY IN MONT-SAINT-MICHEL'S BAY

97 KM

Granville is built on a rocky promontory that closes the bay of Mont-Saint-Michel. It was in this setting that Christian Dior grew up, whose childhood home has become a museum. 15 km off the Pointe du Roc, Causey is the island district of Granville.

Le projet

TRANSPORTS

The easiest way to get to Bayeux (by landing in Paris) is by train. You will have to go to Paris Saint Lazare station, then you will take the train Paris-Cherbourg. You will get off at the Bayeux train station.

Bayeux is close to Paris (about 2 hours by train). It is best to buy tickets online (www.oui.sncf) and print them in advance.

There are also direct buses from the airport to Caen, a town 20 minutes from Bayeux (<https://fr.ouibus.com/destinations>).

If you land at Beauvais airport, there is a shuttle bus to Paris.

There are also shuttle buses from every airport in Paris to the train stations.

For transport between Bayeux and other towns in the department or neighbouring department, there is a rail network (SNCF) and a bus network (Bus Vert). The nearest major town is Caen (25 km from Bayeux).
