About the project

The name "Juvene Semena" comes from last year's youth exchange in France, created by a group of youngsters with the help of the youth center "BIJ La Ciotat" and the association Hors Pistes. The group wanted to underline their desire to create a project by young people for young people!

Juvene Semena means "young seedlings" in Interlingua. It represents the wish to develop our awareness around environmental issues and our role as active citizens in our communities.

The project is co-organised by two organisations: La Víbria Intercultural (Spain) and Hors Pistes (France).

Objectives

TO LIVE AN INTERCULTURAL COLLECTIVE EXPERIENCE

TO EXPLORE THE TOPIC OF ECOLOGY

TO MEET LOCAL INITIATIVES AROUND ECOLOGY

TO SHARE, DISCUSS, LEARN AND INVENT TOGETHER!

Participants

The youth exchange brings together 28 people: 6 young people (16-20 years old) and 1 team leader per country from Spain, France, Germany and Lithuania.

This project is the third in a series of youth exchanges on environmental topics. Participants from previous editions are welcome to repeat the experience. But this project is also open to any young person interested in environmental issues, curious and motivated to experience a multicultural exchange, without previous experience required.

We expect all participants to be actively involved in every session throughout the exchange. Participants will also be expected to organize an intercultural night representing their country.

Keep in mind that the activities will be done in English, so a basic understanding of the language would be helpful.

If you're joining the project as a team leader, you will also be expected to attend a two-day meeting in Terrassa, Spain, at the end of April or the beginning of May to help prepare for the exchange.

Terrassa

Terrassa is located in the province of Barcelona, and is the co-capital of Vallès Occidental. With a population of 225.274 (2023), it's the third biggest city in Catalonia, after Barcelona and L'Hospitalet. Terrassa has been inhabited since prehistory. During Roman times it was known as Egara and there are still important remains from the Middle Ages. It was one of the leading Spanish cities of the industrial revolution, which really shaped the city.

There are a lot of modernist buildings from that time in the city, and some factories can still be found in the middle of residential neighbourhoods. Even if this is not the most touristic city of Catalonia, there are some interesting spots to see!

What to bring

Anything you might need to organize the intercultural night, such as traditional food, snacks, non-alcoholic drinks or souvenirs.

Personal hygiene items: shampoo, shower gel, toothbrush, toothpaste, sunscreen, etc. Alberg Vallparadís provides bed sheets and towels but there are NO hairdryers.

Reusable water bottle, to avoid plastic waste.

You're welcomed to bring any card game, board game or activity to enjoy during the free time and also to share with others during the evenings.
