Your hosting and lead organisation KULTURLABOR STROMBOLI

The Kulturlabor Stromboli is a cultural institution in Hall in Tirol, a small town in the heart of the Alps. The centre was first established in 1989 with the aim of creating a venue for a needed cultural revival of the area. Nowadays it hosts over 100 events throughout the year, combining a wide variety of arts and styles, including concerts, cabarets, theatre plays, literature readings, open air events, discussion groups, exhibitions, parties and a weekly basis children´s program.

The bar also brings a constant influx of people to Stromboli, keeping the centre alive four days of the week. Innovating and trying new ideas is the motto of the organisation, enabling endless possibilities and new cultural adventures. Stromboli is a bubbling cultural volcano situated in the middle of the Alps!

Project funding & Lead Organisation: Verein Kulturlabor Stromboli

The lead organisation of this project is Kulturlabor STROMBOLI. STROMBOLI coordinates one volunteer in the region of Tyrol and is in close contact with other leading and hosting organisations like CUBIC, which coordinates nine volunteers at seven hosting organisations and oversees the administration, finances and the quality control of the project. CUBIC organises wide-ranging group activities for all volunteers about once a month (like a radio show, evaluation meetings, a charity cooking event etc.) These group events are part of the volunteering project and you should be prepared to participate in all these activities.

The duration of this project is 11 months, expectedly from 15. September 2025 until 15. August 2026. We ask you to be committed to participate the whole duration, it's important for the project, your own learning development and for the hosting organisation!

STROMBOLI has submitted this project to the Austrian National Agency and got granted the funding for the next two years for this volunteering project. The EU and Stromboli will finance this volunteering project. The only possible financial contribution that the selected volunteer may need to make is to pay a small share of the travel costs.

The responsible coordinator is ready to answer open questions and to prepare the project with Stromboli, you and the Supporting Sending Organisation. The coordinator's name is Klara Maringele: buero@stromboli.at.

Location, Housing & Finances

Hallisasmall town with around 13,500 inhabitants,10kmeast of Innsbruck. The surrounding mountains and the beautiful medieval architecture of the town, makes it a favourite destination for visitors from all around the world, both in summer and winter. During the middle ages, Hall was one of the most important economic centres in Tyrol through the trade of salt. Today, Hall is a thriving small town with a vibrant and diverse range of individual shops, cafes and bars; offering a wide range of free time activities like sports and nature, as many cultural highlights, where Stromboli plays a large role.

You will live in 5 minutes walking distance from Stromboli and have a fully equipped small apartment on your own. It is situated in the youth centre called Park In. This centre provides wide offers for young people and has a skate park. The EuSC volunteer from Park In will be your neighbour. Towels, linen, as well as cleaning products will be provided without any extra costs. You have to accept the house rules. The apartment has a small and fully equipped kitchen, a bathroom with a washing machine and a living and sleeping room with balcony. Stromboli and the apartment are in walking distance to the train station in Hall and the journey by bus to Innsbruck takes roughly 20 minutes.
You will be provided with a ticket for the public transport in Tyrol. Additionally, you will receive sufficient monthly food money and EUR 7,- per day of pocket money.
